

A Program for Kitikmeot Inuit Families

Do you have a baby born in 2025?

The Kitikmeot Inuit Association (KIA) is offering FREE Welcome Baby Packages to support your child's early development — socially, emotionally, physically, and cognitively.

What's Inside?

Each baby package includes items such as:

- 💄 Storybooks & board books in English or Inuinnaqtun/Inuktitut
- Tun hand puppets for playtime and bonding
- & Age-appropriate items designed for infants
 Perfect for family learning, playing, and growing together!

Who is eligible?

- Inuit children born January 1 December 31, 2025
- Must be registered with NTI
- → Must be Kitikmeot Inuit

Living in the Kitikmeot Region?

- ✓ Pick up a package at your local KIA office
- Bring:
 - Parent/Guardian ID
 - Child's documentation
 - NTI Number

Living outside the Kitikmeot Region?

Email Sandra Carter, Early Learning & Child Care Project Coordinator, to request an application form: SCarter@kitia.ca or visit:

https://kitia.ca/news/welcome-baby-a-program-for-kitikmeot-inuit-families/

Supplies are limited – don't miss out!

Let's celebrate your baby's journey — one story, one cuddle, one giggle at a time!

Brought to you by KIA and funded by the Government of Canada through the Indigenous

Early Learning and Child Care Program (poster 0925)